

IGNACIO MALUQUER TREPAT

VICE PRESIDENT OF INSTITUTIONAL RELATIONS/OWNER MEMBER

Mr. Maluquer is Vice President of Institutional Relations at Cox Energy América.

During his professional life he has served as General Manager in the company Informática y Telemática Portuaria S.A., Regional Director for Catalonia, Aragon and the Balearic Islands in Grupo Sice Tecnología y Sistemas and Director General of Sumipar. Previously, he has served as General Manager of the Sice Technology and Systems Group in Chile, Director of Corporate Development of the Sice Technology and Systems Group, ACS Group, and Director of Business Development, an activity that served to him to know new markets such as, USA, Canada, Russia, Saudi Arabia, Morocco, Colombia, among others.

In its most recent stage, he was appointed in 2011 as General Manager of the Sice Technology and Systems Group in Mexico, an activity he developed until early 2018. At this stage, in addition to its long history of activity in Pemex, he achieved an important participation in the Mexican market in the sector of technologies applied to mobility, road safety and management systems in transport infrastructures, both for the public sector and for private customers.

Mr. Maluquer has been a member of the board of directors in various companies close to his professional activity, among which are Tele Expo, Infoport Valencia S.A, Serviport Andalucía S.A., and participated in the governing bodies of numerous institutions, such as Vocal board of the Board of Trustees of the Center for Language Technology, member of the Scientific Committee of Euroamerica , member of the Infra Project Monitoring Committee, and has presented numerous presentations in different national and international forums.

He has studies in Industrial Engineering, specializing in electronics and in Computer Technology at the University School of Engineering of Tarrasa (Barcelona, Spain).